A few things:

From the Nationals:

Congratulations to Cory Niefer on his making the National A Team in Air Rifle and 3 Position. For the length of time Cory has been involved in our sport, it is a real accomplishment to be in the top 4 Male Finishers in these two disciplines. In Prone he was 1st Expert.

Congratulations Neil Suttill, 1st Expert Prone, 3rd Master 3-Position and 3rd Master Grand Aggregate in Sporting Rifle. 2nd Sharpshooter 3-Position Match Rifle. 6th Expert Air Rifle.

Congratulations to Pat Suttill, 2nd Sharpshooter Prone, 3rd Sharpshooter 3-Position and 1st Grand Aggregate in Sporting Rifle.

Congratulations to Kevin Hill, 7th Marksman, 7th International Junior Prone, 4th Marksman, 10th International Junior 3-Position Match Rifle. 6th Sharpshooter and 19th International Junior in Air Rifle.

Web Page & Other Sites:

For those of you with access to the internet, we have started to work on a web page at www.geocities.com/eliteshooter/index.html. We hope to be able to at least keep lists of upcoming matches and post the results of matches besides promoting our sport and the benefits of being a member of the association. If you have any questions or comments about this contact Cory, Neil or myself.

For those wanting to look up ISU shooting rules, the web site to look at is: www.issf-shooting.org/rules___regulations.html.

Funny Stuff

The Paint Is Dry

Once upon a time there was this shoot.... It was not an ordinary shoot, it was a special shoot. The equipment is custom made, everyone had something different. Hats with side flaps, leather jackets, leather pants, mats, carpets, rifles, spotting scopes, earmuffs, earplugs, etc. They were all different, each item made or purchased to fit the shooter. The targets said the same story, each one custom made. Each one with a different sized group, from the size of a quarter to the size of a tea cup plate. Each competitor will check and compare other's targets and scores. They will purchase a new "Help make you shoot better" item or make one. This is called competition. With competition there is fairness and in all fairness and with good competitors the range official gets to watch the paint dry.

Shooting Supply List

EAR PLUGS - (to stop nose bleeds)
FLAT HEAD SCREWDRIVER - (are cheaper than taxi drivers)
EAR MUFFS - (oops! spelling mistake, it should read, "EAT MUFFINS")
BULLET BLOCK - (to put on white of target)
ALLAN KEY - (or steal the keys from whomever owns a Porsche)
KNEELING ROLL - (for when you run out of tootsie rolls)
SHOOTING MAT - (water bed)
PRE-SHOT TARGETS - (for competition)
AIR RIFLE PELLETS - (not as messy as rabbit pellets)
FRONT PEEP INSERTS - (another spelling mistake: "FRIED DEEP INSECTS")
CLEANING PATCHES AND CLEANING ROD - (to clean between ears with)
CLIPS TO HANG TARGETS - (if you don't know how to tie a noose)
BLINDER - (what someone who can't spell puts their school work in)
SHOOTING LEATHERS - (hopefully not made out of fruit leather)
WATER BOTTLE - (filled with booze)
GLOVE - (so you don't leave behind any finger prints at the scene of the crime)
GUN - (to make it look like you are competing)
STOP WATCH - (to give you all the time in the world)
GUN REST - (when the gun gets tired of shooting)
SHOOTING BOOTS - (what the coach gives you when you shoot bad)
TARGET FRAMES - (when the target didn't commit the crime)
SCOPE - (to freshen your breath)
SCOPE HOLDER - (someone with a really steady hand)
A PRE-MADE LIST OF EXCUSES - (you aren't a shooter without one)
ALARM CLOCK - (to wake your foot up after you shoot kneeling)
MATADOR BULLETS - (always gets the bull)
A GOOD SET OF SIGHTS - (only when pretty women (or cute guys) are around)
SHOOTING GLASSES - (needed to see what you are shooting)
WIND FLAGS - (to distract the other shooters)
INSTRUCTION FOR ADJUSTING THE SIGHTS - (hopefully they're correct!)
COW BULLETS - (attracted to the bulls)
METAL POLES FOR THE STANDS - (also used by the coach to beat you if you shoot bad)
A SPECIAL HAT TO KEEP THE SUN OUT OF YOUR FACE - (only used by parents)
FLATTER THE SCORE KEEPERS - (self explanatory)
BRING GUN'S MAGAZINE - (misspelling, it should read, "BIGUNS MAGAZINE")
SHOOTER'S GUIDE BOOK - (work better than scout books, also to tell you how to shoot in case you forget)
TARGETS WITH PICTURES OF ALLAN ROCK ON THEM - (self explanatory)

REPORT FROM BLACK POWDER CARTRIDGE SILHOUETTE

We hosted 3 matches this past year at the Bethune BPCR Range. The first match was held on June 3 and the winners were as follows;

Match Winner - Len Volman
AAA - Leo Bumphrey
AA - Gary Vance
A - Ivan Couronne
B - Cliff Peters

The second match of the year is hosted as The Don Pingert Memorial Match and was held July 8th & 9th.

Match Winner - Len Volman
AAA - Leo Bumphrey
AA - Sam Brailean
A - Don Bird
B - Cliff Peters

The year end match was hosted on September 23 & 24th. The match results were;

Match Winner - Kieth Neilson
AAA - Len Volman
AA - Les Bokinac
A - Marj Bird

Following the September match Kieth Nielson from Prince Albert and myself met with the agenda of coming up with a format for a provincial championship for the upcoming 2001 season. We have agreed to a general format which would require a competitor to shoot over a period of 4 days.

Any competitor wishing to compete for the title of BPCR Provincial Champion must compete at the 2 day match in September at Prince Albert and then at the 2 day fall match, which falls two weeks later at the Bethune range. The results of all 4 days of shooting will be added together to establish the champions. A Provincial Champion in each classification will be declared. The remaining issue to be addressed by Kieth and myself is what to come up with for trophies, prizes etc. It sounds like a great idea and hopefully will create some excitement in our particular shooting discipline.
